

NEWS ALERT FROM SUFFOLK DISTRICT ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE
HON. C. RANDALL HINRICHS

Effective Wednesday, July 19, 2017:

The Supreme Court Commercial Part, presided over by Justice Jerry Garguilo, will relocate to the Cohalan Court Complex in Central Islip.

Justice Garguilo will continue to handle the same inventory that he presently handles in Riverhead, but will be sitting in the courtroom previously occupied by Justice Reilly on the third floor of the Cohalan Court Complex. His telephone number will be (631) 853-7703. There will be no change in the manner of assignment of Commercial Division matters. Commercial Division matters will be assigned a Judge at the time of the filing of the Commercial Division Request for Judicial Intervention (RJI). If the assigned Judge is unavailable for an application and the parties need to be heard immediately, counsel is directed to appear at the Riverhead Special Term Clerk's Office for assignment to the Special Term Justice in Riverhead.

Justice David T. Reilly will be assigned to sit in a Civil Part in Riverhead. He will be sitting in the courtroom previously occupied by Justice Garguilo on the second floor of the Hon. Alan D. Oshrin Supreme Court Building on Court Street. His telephone number will be (631) 852-3428. Justice Reilly will be handling the civil (non-foreclosure) inventory previously assigned to the Justice James C. Hudson. Justice Reilly's matrimonial inventory is being reassigned to the other Judges assigned to hear matrimonial cases.

The newly appointed Court of Claims Judge, Hon. Sanford Neil Berland, will be sitting in Riverhead as an Acting Supreme Court Justice assigned to hear civil cases. Judge Berland will be sitting on the third floor of the Arthur M. Cromarty Criminal Courts Building on Center Drive. His telephone number will be (631) 852-2584.
